AN AWFUL WAR

The Mob Led by a Wife and Mother.

MANY BADLY INJURED

And Some Will Die—Never Did Women so Unsex Themselves in all the World's History—More Trouble is Feared from the Strikers—In Fact it is Promised.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 4.—The north end of the Connellsville coke region is in a fever of fear and excitement tonight.

The terrible work at the Painter plant of the McClure company, had as it was in itself, is feared as still more foreshadowing the beginning of times and conditions that are inevitable unless this strike is speedily settled.

The battle today was between striking Poles, a small number of deputies and a comparatively few men at work at the Painter plant.

Deputy Sheriff Sanford White and Chief Clerk Ewing B. Riddy were terribly beaten and are in a critical condition tonight.

Five men and two women on the strikers' side were shot and two of the men are dangerously wounded. Six of the rioters have been arrested and are now in the Uniontown jail. The Painter plant was closed down by the strikers on the 24th inst. and was idle until Wednesday last.

Early this morning, Joe Sconesky's wife went about to the other houses and got the women of the striking Poles to join her in a raid on the plant. About 6 o'clock, she had 15 men, women and children in the ranks ready for the raid.

The men remained in the rear and the women and children, led by Mrs. Sconesky, made a rush for the coke yard.

This region has seen many savage affairs in which women unsexed themselves by deeds of violence, but the old timers say that never before has there been such a spectacle as this.

Every person in the assaulting party had some sort of striking weapon, even the children, screaming as they flourished sticks suited to their size.

Many of the women bore axes and some of the men of the mob carried ball bats and hatchets.

Deputy White was the first on whom a blow fell. Mrs. Sconesky had a club and her husband wielded an axe.

Riddy and a clerk named James Farr saw him fall. In the face of the fearful odds these two men sprang to his rescue and fought their way to his side. Then the frantic raiders fell upon Farr and Riddy, as White struggled to his feet, covered with blood. The three men fought desperately, but the odds were too great and finally all were down again, under the feet of the mob. Riddy was beaten and cut about the head almost as badly as White.

It is believed that at least fifty were shot.

Tonight White is in the miners' hospital at Connellsville. The latest reports are that he will die. Riddy was brought to his home here. He is vomiting blood and is very badly injured. Two of the Poles shot in the melee are pronounced to be in a very dangerous condition and are likely to die.

Sixty-three rioters, among them twelve women and ten children, have been taken to jail and warrants for fifty others have been sworn out, but the men cannot now be found. To night the Painter plant is in charge of a large number of deputies, and the company is determined to operate it.

COXEY IN COURT.

Arguments Will Probably be Completed Today.

CONSTITUTIONAL POINTS

Are Sprung—N. Food and no Prospects of Transportation for Kelly's "Army" of Industrialists in Des Moines, Iowa—The "Army" Will be Starved Out.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Coxey and his lieutenants, Browne and Jones, were arraigned in the district police court today for violation of the capital grounds act. The courtroom was filled, populist members of congress constituting a notable part of the assembly.

Attorneys Hyman and Lipscomb, for the defendants, raised the issue of the constitutionality of the law under which their clients were arrested.

The point was argued by Senator Allen, of Nebraska. Congress, he said, had no power to confer upon the vice-president and speaker the right to suspend the enforcement of an act any more than it had the right to confer the power upon the czar of Russia. He denounced the courts for assuming legislative functions. This case, the senator declared, would assume national importance. He quoted the magna charta and America's revolutionary history, and declared that the arrest of the defendants implied the denial of the rights of peaceable assembly and petition. Those rights were guaranteed in the constitution as regards every spot in the District of Columbia, just as much as California, Texas or Florida.

Judge Miller after the arguments closed, overruled the objections of the counsel, holding the Capitol grounds act constitutional. He also denied Coxey a special trial.

The empanelling of a jury occupied two hours. The secretary of the board of trade was peremptorily challenged by the defense.

Maloney then made the opening statement for the prosecution.

The trial will be continued tomorrow and the attorneys stated to the court today, they expected to conclude them.

KELLY'S CONDITION.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 4.—Kelly's industrialists are disheartened. At breakfast time the commissary officers reported 1,000 loaves of bread and coffee, but scarcely enough meat and coffee to supply the officers' mess.

Governor Jackson is endeavoring to secure cheap rates to the river but is not confident of success.

It is the general impression that Kelly will be starved out and the army dwindle to a corporal's guard before the river is reached.

TESTIMONIALS published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla are as reliable and worthy of confidence as if from your most trusted neighbor.

The Nineteenth Century Club

Met as usual on Friday afternoon, with seventeen members present.

After some items of business were taken up, a most fascinating paper on Edinburgh, Melrose and Abbotford, sent by Mrs. Moore, the former president, was read, after which ten minutes were spent on parliamentary law.

To the roll call after recess the president responded by giving an interesting account of Prescott, the historian and Horace Mann, it being their birthday.

Miss Dulin and Mrs. Coray gave beautiful poems, while the shorter quotations were fine.

A talk by Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Wedgwood's guest, on the woman's building at the Columbian Exposition was listened to with interest, and was followed by members of the club who had been present at the exposition.

Last Night's Concert.

The first of the series of three emulative concerts under the auspices of the young People's Mutual Improvement Association of the Utah Stake of Zion, in quarterly conference today in Provo, was given last evening in the stake tabernacle. The program extended the opening and closing pieces by the choir was rendered wholly by young ladies and it was eminently satisfactory. The concert was deserving of better patronage by the public than it received.

The program rendered after "Hail Bright Abode" by the stake tabernacle choir was as follows.

"In Old Madrid" by Miss Nellie Halliday of Provo.

This was well rendered. The young lady's articulation was especially good.

"Birds in Dreamland Sleep" by Mrs. Millie Bromley Garff of Lehi.

Mrs. Garff has a very fine voice, well under control.

"That Melody Divine" by Miss Emma Elmer of American Fork.

This lady has a powerful voice and

With a little more cultivation will develop into one of Utah county's favorite singers.

"Wooing" by Miss Emerett Cutler of Lehi.

Although laboring under a slight cold Miss Cutler sang with very good expression.

Piano solo, "Old Blat Joe" by Mrs. H. C. T. Anderson of Lehi.

In this selection the former displayed excellent technique and the interpretation of the ballad melody with elaborate variation was wholly satisfactory to the audience and critics.

"Armour," a hymn by Provo ladies' chorus was rendered with attack and blending.

"Rock of Ages" by six ladies from American Fork was rendered very prettily. However, the sopranos were slightly heavy for the other parts. In other respects the expression was good.

"It Was a Dream," a quartet solo by Miss Emma John of Provo.

This selection is a rather difficult one, but good intonation and clear articulation were special features of the rendition.

The quartette, "Beautiful Sea" by Mrs. Garff and Miss M. Smith of Lehi was a very pretty selection nicely sung. It was evident that the singers were suffering considerably from "stage fright."
